

Broadband should be permitted and enabled by all possible mechanisms. It is presently over-regulated, resulting in lack of competition and disproportionate access and benefit by "haves" over "have-nots."